

Fire & Gas safety service

Marine safety is our core business and Fire & Gas safety service/services are the main activities of our service team. Our service engineers are fully trained on Fire Detection and Gas detection , Emission monitoring and SMIG systems. To ensure that we offer the best possible services we work closely with our customers.

Annual maintenance and inspections are regularly provided to our local customers to ensure their Fire and Gas detection systems are working flawless and fully comply with local and international rules and regulations.

- We support you with the right service technicians at very short notice
- Service available during weekdays / weekends or holidays
- Service available Canada wide and Globally by our Consilium engineers or our authorized service centers

Available services on Fire & Gas

- Repair and Maintenance
- Remote telephone and e-mail support
- On site trouble shooting with possible spares needed
- Calibration services
- Annual inspections on Fire Detection & Gas detection systems

Get in touch

Feel free to contact us at:
service.ca@consilium.com

